

Document D

Source: Library of Congress, Prints and Photographs Division, LC-USZ62-30794.

African-Americans worship in Cincinnati, Ohio. Early 1800s

Note: The Church was a place to become involved in community politics, to fight for social causes like voting rights, temperance, and abolition. It was a place to marry, and to be buried. The African Congregational Church in New Haven offered a literary club, ran a Sunday school, published a newspaper, hosted abolitionist meetings, and provided a refuge for fugitive slaves.

CV